Informal Learning Basics with Saul Carliner

Because it might represent as much as 70 percent of workplace learning, informal learning is one of the most talked-about topics in training today. But what is informal learning? And why should technical communicators care about it? Join Saul Carliner for an informative evening discussing just what informal learning means to your professional development.

Working as a Technical Communicator: Panel Discussion

Come to the Society for Technical Communication (STC) Twin Cities (TC) meeting at Metro State on February 9, 2016, for the panel discussion: Working as a Technical Communicator. A range of writing topics will be covered: networking, skills needed to succeed, writing specializations (medical, proposal, web, and more), and career changes to technical writing. Bring your questions and learn from working professionals, including Metro State graduates.
